

TRAINING REPORT

Training on the topic “Agroforestry Systems and livelihood generation” has been organized on 05-05-2018 at Van Sansadhan Kendra, Motipur, Mujaffarpur (Tirhut Forest Division) under the “Agroforestry Capacity Building Project of Bihar State” by Forestry Research and Extension Centre, Patna (Institute of Forest Productivity, Ranchi). In the training 27 participants (26 Farmers and 1 forest official) participated. During the training various aspects of agroforestry systems and livelihood generation through agroforestry has been discussed. In the question answer session farmers were asked about the suitable species and clones which can be planted in the region and were answered by the resource person. The details of the training are:-

S.N.	ITEMS	DESCRIPTION
1.	Forest Division (In which Training organized)	: Tirhut
2.	District of Training	: Muzaffarpur
3.	Block	: Motipur
4.	Panchayat	: Barji
5.	Village	: Van Sansadhan Kendra, Mahwal
6.	Number of Participants	:26
7.	No. of Male Participants	:26
8.	No. of Female participants	: Nil
9.	Forest officials Participated	:1
9.	Training Topics (on which lecture given)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Agroforestry and its commercial and environmental importance• Different agroforestry systems which can be practiced in Motipur, Mujaffarpur.• Economic importance of agroforestry species and systems.• Important diseases and insect pests of Poplar based agroforestry systems and their control measure.• Nursery raising techniques of Poplar and other agroforestry species like Kadamb, Semal and Eucalyptus.

- ETP transplanting and after care/silvicultural operations required in poplar based agroforestry systems.
 - Question and Answer session with farmers involving forest official of the forest Division.
-

Farmers Participated in Training on Agroforestry systems

Farmers Participated in Training on Agroforestry systems