

A report on visit of School students of B.Sc (Horticulture), College of Horticulture, Koppal, Munirabad (Karnataka) to Forest Research Institute, Dehradun

A group of 50 students of B.Sc (Horticulture), College of Horticulture, Koppal, Munirabad (Karnataka) visited Forest Research Institute, Dehradun on 13th February, 2019. A brief information about FRI was given by Senior Technical Officer, Extension Division. The students visited FRI museums namely Pathology Museum, Silviculture Museum, Timber Museum, NWFP Museum and Entomology Museum. Dr. Manoj Kumar, Technical Officer, Forest Protection Division gave information about disease affected plant parts, fungi including edible and medicinal fungi etc in Pathology Museum.

Group photo of students, teachers of Horticulture, Koppal, Munirabad and officer of FRI

Dr. Manoj Kumar, Technical Officer interacted with students in Pathology Museum

Shri Ajay Gulati, STO briefed about FRI to the students

Students, teachers of college and officer of FRI in Silviculture Museum

A report on visit of School students of G.H.S.S Chamasari, Dehradun to Forest Research Institute, Dehradun

A group of 19 students of 9th class of G.H.S.S Chamasari, Dehradun visited Forest Research Institute, Dehradun on 13th February, 2019. A brief information about FRI was given by Senior Technical Officer, Extension Division. The students visited FRI museums namely Pathology Museum, Silviculture Museum, Timber Museum, NWFP Museum and Entomology Museum.

Group photo of students and teachers of G.H.S.S Chamasari, Dehradun with officer of FRI

Student and Teachers in Pathology Museum