

EDUCATIONAL EXPOSURE VISIT OF KENDRIYA VIDYALAYA IFFCO, ANOLA, BAREILLY (UP)
STUDENTS TO FRI
[20th FEBRUARY 2020]
UNDER "PRAKRITI" PROGRAMME

The Forest research Institute, Dehradun organizes visits of students of different Kendrya and Navodaya Vidyalayas under a scientist – student interaction programme “Prakriti”.

Under this programme Prakiriti 46 students KV IFFCO, Anola, Bareilly, visited the Forest Research Institute on 20th Feb 2020 with their 05 teachers and interacted with Scientists of Extension Division of the institute. During interactive session Dr. Devendra Kumar, Scientist E introduced the Scientists of Extension Division with students and their teachers. Dr. A.K. Pandey, Head, Extension Division, Extension Division, FRI given brief account of the institute and research work being carried out in it. He mentioned that FRI is a premier institute in the field of forestry research, extension and education to cater the various services of forestry. He told that the institute is also equipped with a deemed university which cater degree courses at postgraduate and doctorate level in forestry. He said that students are future custodian of native and hence they have to bear more and more responsibility on their shoulders to conserve the nature by conserving natural resources.

During interaction Mr. Vijay Kumar, ACF, Mr. Rambir Singh, Mr. P.P. Singh, Dy. Ranger and Mr. Yatharth Dulgacha, MTS were also present. After interaction, students visited various FRI museums of the institute viz. Forest Pathology museum, Silviculture museum, Timber Museum, Bambusetum and central nursery. During the visit of different museums, quarries were raised by students and explained by concerned scientists/officers deputed in museums of FRI.

Glimpses of visit:

