

Observance of Vigilance Awareness week at Tropical Forest Research Institute, Jabalpur

Tropical Forest Research Institute (TFRI), Jabalpur will be observing Vigilance Awareness week themed on “Vigilant India, Prosperous India “from 27 October - 2 November 2020 as per directions of Central Vigilance Commission (CVC), Government of India. Dr. G. Rajeshwar Rao, Director TFRI along with Dr. Fatima Shirin, Vigilance Officer administered vigilance pledge to the scientists, officers and staff of the institute to fight against corruption and commit to honesty and integrity at all spheres of life. Various senior scientists of the institute including Dr. M. Kundu, Dr. Avinash Jain and Dr. Sarvanan were also present at the ceremony.

Director TFRI, taking vigilance pledge along with scientists, officers and staff members of the institute